18)

19 Defendant, Robert Robinson, through Christopher Haydn-Myer,
20 Attorney At Law, and the United States of America, through Assistant
21 U.S. Attorney Anne Pings, agree as follows:

22 It is agreed that the Judgment and Sentencing date of February 28,
23 2006 be vacated and a new Judgment and Sentencing date of April 4, 2006
24 be set.

25 Mr. Robinson pled guilty before the Court on December 16, 2005.
26 The continuance is being requested for two reasons. First, counsel is 27 attempting to have Mr. Robinson interviewed a second time by the United 28 States Probation Department. Second, counsel is gathering information

1 regarding Mr. Robinson's parole file and records from the California
2 Department of Corrections. Counsel believes that the records will be
3 relevant for sentencing.

4 For all of these reasons, the parties jointly request a new
5 Judgment and Sentencing date on April 4, 2006.
